THAT THAT ELECTRIC IRON WITHOUT ELECTRIC CURRENT IS LIKE A MAN WITHOUT AMBITION; NOT WORTH A CENT. THATS THE DIFFERENCE IN MEN. SOME ARE CONNECTED TO THE SOURCE OF SUPPLY AND ARE FULL OF LOVE AND KINDNESS AND FRIENDSHIP AND FORCE. OTHERS ARE IN THE SCRAP HEAP FOR SALE AS OLD IRON, AND SOME ARE NOT EVEN FOR SALE. THERE ARE CONCEITED FLAT IRONS WHO THINK THEY CAN WORK WITHOUT HEAT THEY ARE LIKE MEN WITHOUT AN HONEST IMPULSE IN THEIR HEARTS. LADIES' SOLID GOLD
HYPODERMIC
MORPHINE SET

$500
GOLD AND JEWELLED
MORPHINE SET

What are Fashionable Women Doing with These Exquisitely Jeweled Gold Morphine Sets?

DURING the Christmas shopping season some persons were amazed and shocked to discover among the gifts offered for sale in the best jewelry houses of New York gold jeweled morphine sets.

Apparently they were intended for women, and certainly for persons of great wealth. The inference is that rich and fashionable women now receive at the sacred Christmas season congratulatory gifts, which mark their enslavement to one of the most degrading and ruinous of vices.

The gifts were cleverly disguised. They might easily have been mistaken for card cases, or for ornate and expensive cigarette cases. So far as the exterior was concerned, they were in all essentials one of these. Some of them were of solid gold, their outlines and surface severely plain. Others were elaborately engraved. Still others were delicately etched.

Desultory shoppers asked the price of these cases, and the salesmen politely replied: "They range from $135 to $225 or $300, according to size and design." But in one respect the otherwise courteous salesman was remiss. He never offered to show the purchaser these cases. If the purchaser asked to see them, he went to another showcase, took out some almost exactly similar, opened the duplicates and revealed a handsome card case or a beautiful cigarette holder—empty.

It was to a special class of customers, who knew just what they wanted, that he showed the first of these "card cases." The purchaser showed no surprise when they were seen to be filled and completely fitted out with tiny vials, tubes and a needle, thin and brilliant, and delicate as a point of light.

These really morphine fiends exchanged gifts, the significance of which was known only to themselves. In some instances monograms were added in diamonds, but always inside the cases. Sometimes, since these are hard times, a wealthy but prudent purchaser turned from the gold sets to the silver ones.

"With plain silver case (twenty-four dollars; with engraved or etched, thirty dollars)," said the salesman. Occasionally the purchaser turned back to the handsome gold cases and wrote a check for $225 or $300. But upon reflection he several times bought the silver, ordering that the etching be done after a fine old Florentine pattern.

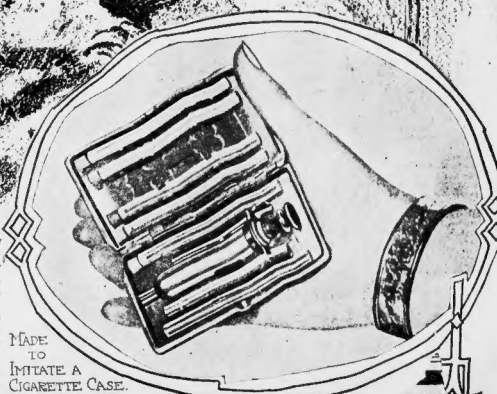

"Any monogram, sir?" the clerk would ask. "No," was the gruff response, if response came at all.

One beautiful, pale-faced woman, with purplish white eyelids drooping above hollow black eyes, about whose lips was the faint blue line that is the stamp of those afflicted by the terrible habit, gave to a fashionable silversmith's and ordered two of the most expensive hypodermic sets, all mounted in gold, with each instrument and gold-mounted vial and the inner side of the case itself bearing intertwined monograms, "T. H. and A. L." Whether the duplicate gift went to a man or woman friend no one knew, for the purchaser, whose carriage bore one of these monograms in gold, carried the articles away.

A week after Christmas the stock of innocent looking cases with their evil contents had been reduced almost to nothing. Only one or two such cases as those which have here been pictured could be found in the city.

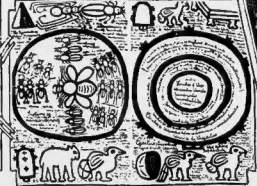

"For the sale was heavy at Christmas time," proprietor and clerk alike explained.

Strange New Discoveries about Children.

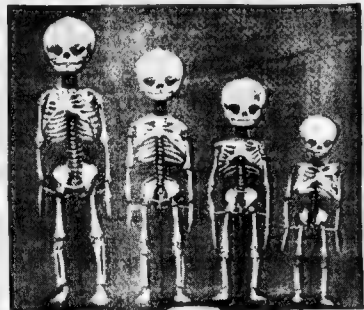

Head of a New Born Infant with the Skull Intact

The Same Skull When Gird is Full Grown

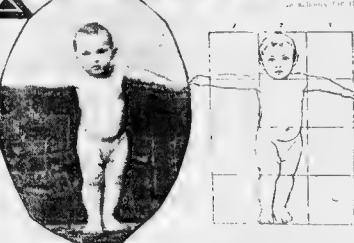

The skull of a new born infant is very different from that of a full grown child. It is much larger in proportion to the body, and the bones are not so firmly united. The skull is covered with a thick layer of fat, and the hair is very soft. The skull is also very flexible, and can be pressed inwards without any harm to the brain. This is why the skull of a new born infant is so much larger than that of a full grown child.

THE PEOPLE OF MARS

THE THINGS THAT LIVE ON MARS.

WHAT will the inhabitants of Mars be like? This is the question which has been asked by many of our readers. The answer is, I think, that they will be like us. They will be like us in every way that matters. They will be like us in their minds, in their bodies, in their habits, in their passions, in their weaknesses, in their strengths. Is the Secret of Health and a Long Life

Most people who are sick and despondent and always out of sorts need only more air in their lungs to make them well and strong. Lack of lung capacity—with all that means in the way of defective breathing, stopped shoulders, and weakened vitality—produces more sickness than all other causes combined.

You must breathe to live, and the better you breathe the stronger and healthier you will be. You may be young in years, but if you are round-shouldered and weak-lunged you are old in fact. Round shoulders flatten the chest, squeeze the lungs, liver and stomach, and cause the abdomen to bulge out.

You have Hay Fever, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, or even Consumption, simply because the unused portions of your squeezed lungs are decaying in your chest. The remedy is to STAND STRAIGHT, WALK UPRIGHT AND BREATHE FULL AND DEEP.

For Man, Woman and Child.

Reborn makes "born again"—and that is the way this wonderful invention makes you feel. It expands the chest from one to three inches, and it positively prevents lung trouble by compelling deep breathing. It straightens round shoulders, throws the chest out, and increases the height by lengthening the body.

To a woman Reborn gives a fascinating figure with or without corsets, but when it comes to the matter of health, it gives to a man that erect, confident appearance that stands him as a man.

It gives to a man that erect, confident appearance that stands him as a man. It gives to a man that erect, confident appearance that stands him as a man. It gives to a man that erect, confident appearance that stands him as a man.

PERFECTLY COMFORTABLE.

Reborn is so perfectly comfortable that you will not know you are wearing it unless you feel your body collapse through the round shoulder habit. Even then you are not pulled back by a vicious clutch. You are straightened up gently in a few days without any discomfort. That you wonder why you never tried it before.

LOOK AT THESE PICTURES.

The pictures on this leaf show the health-destroying effect of the round shoulder habit—with curved spine, weak chest and protruding abdomen. See the improvement in the pictures on the right. These are actual photographs—made before and after wearing Reborn.

In this advertisement we make you a special introductory offer. Send it carefully and act today, while you are thinking about it.

Only $2.00 If You Order Now

To make this offer of the perfect Reborn, we will send you a sample bottle of 3 in One Oil. This is the famous oil that lubricates anything, cleans and polishes everything, prevents rust on metal surfaces indoors and out.

Reborn Makes Beautiful Women

Women who are sallow and without color in the cheeks, can be made bright-eyed and beautiful by wearing Reborn—for it forces fresh oxygen into their lungs.

Nothing so detracts from a woman's beauty as a low chest and a protruding abdomen. A woman so handicapped cannot be made beautiful by any amount of development, by any artificial means. To be attractive, a woman must stand erect and breathe deep. Reborn will cause you to do this—and without discomfort.

If you tire easily, have frequent headaches, indigestion or vertigo, Reborn will cause you to feel well, strong and fresh again. Wear Reborn and stop having the blues.

TEDDY-B AND TEDDY-G; THE BEAR DETECTIVES

NO. XIV.—Mystery of the Forty Thieves.
Verses by Seymour Eaton Drawings by E. H. Twelvotrees

Copyright, 1908, by Seymour Eaton

When they reached the spot they saw a road
And donkeys three waiting for their load
A brown-faced man, as best he could,
Was chopping and splitting a load of wood

"Then off they started in greatest glee."

TEDDY-B stepped up and said, "Good day;
We're the Teddy Bears; we've lost our way;
Will you tell us, please, which way is best;
Is it north we go, or east or west?"
"Don't go at all," the man replied,
"But stay right here on this mountain side."

"And the three sat down on a mat of straw."

And how they lived in a castle grand,
The most home in all the land;
While he and his wife, so poor were they,
The peddled wood from day to day,
"Tell us your name," said TEDDY-G.
"My name is Ali Baba," said he;
"The boys and girls in the village street
Stop on the way when us they meet,
Me and my donkeys, because," he said,
"I tell them stories which I have read,
And of things I've seen and of robbers bold,
Who stole one night my father's gold."
Just then on the road a dusty cloud
And galloping horses and shouting loud
Made Ali Baba jump and the donkeys scare
And the Teddy Bears stand up and stare.

"Mace * * * the Teddy Bears stand up and stare."

As soon as the noise was understood
The donkeys were hid behind the wood,
And Ali Baba and the Teddy Bears
Climbed up a tree and with limbs for chaus.
They watched the horsemen, a robber band,
Came up with a rush and at command
Wheel round about and all dismounting;
There were forty thieves by actual count,
Then along a path, a rough isent,
To the door of a cave these robbers went.

"We're the Teddy Bears; we've lost our way."

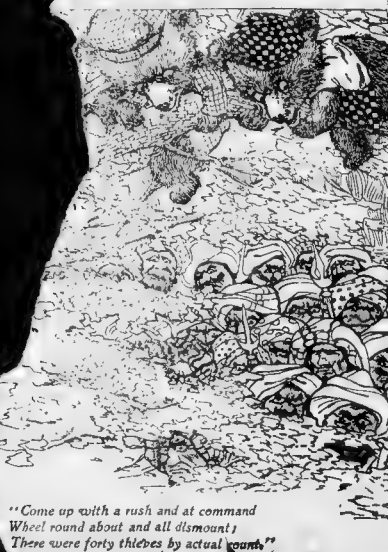

I need your help; I've heard of you;
I've a problem here for you to do."

The man took each bear by the paw,
And the three sat down on a mat of straw,
He told them the story of his life,
Of his only brother and his wealthy wife;

W HEN they reached the spot they saw a road
And donkeys three waiting for their load
A brown-faced man, as best he could,
Was chopping and splitting a load of wood
Then off they started in greatest glee.

TEDDY-B stepped up and said, "Good day;

Here Is Europe's Finest Head of Hair

What New England Woman
Can Show a Better One?

Marcel Wave Is a
Thing of the Past

After visiting Paris and making the most of the latest in hairdressing, Marcel Wave has returned to New England with a new style of hair that is the finest of Europe's. It is a style that is simple, elegant, and easy to wear. It is a style that is the latest in hairdressing, and it is a style that is the finest of Europe's. What to Wear If You Are Too Stout

When you are too stout, it is important to choose your clothing wisely. You should avoid tight-fitting clothes and instead opt for loose, flowing garments that camouflage your figure. Dark colors are also preferable to light ones, as they tend to make you look smaller. Finally, avoid excessive ornamentation and stick to simple, elegant lines.

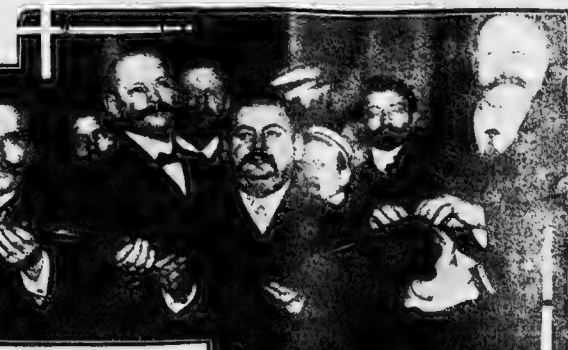

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor. Your letter will be held in the strictest confidence. From her vast correspondence with sick women during the past thirty years she may have gained the very knowledge that will help you, too. So I'll let you know how, from grateful women, establish beyond a doubt the power of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND to conquer all female diseases. Mrs. Norman H. Burdett, of Allentown, Pa., writes:

"Ever since I was sixteen years of age I had suffered from various derangements and female weakness, and in consequence I had dreadful headaches and was extremely nervous. My physician said I must go through an operation to get well. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it and wrote you for advice, following your directions carefully, and thanks to you I am today a well woman, and I am telling all my friends of my experience."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with derangements, inflammation, ulcers, piles, throat tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, nervous prostration.

Timely Tips for Home Dressmakers

When you are making a dress, it is important to choose the right fabric and to cut it correctly. You should also pay attention to the details, such as the collar, cuffs, and hem. Finally, make sure that the dress is comfortable and easy to wear.

1. The first step is to identify the key components of the system. This includes understanding the hardware, software, and data involved. For example, in a web application, this might involve identifying the server, database, and client-side code.

On the other hand, the $\mathbb{Z}_2$ -equivariant cohomology of the $\mathbb{Z}_2$ -space $\mathbb{Z}_2/\mathbb{Z}_2$ is isomorphic to the $\mathbb{Z}_2$ -equivariant cohomology of the $\mathbb{Z}_2$ -space $\mathbb{Z}_2/\mathbb{Z}_2$. This is because the $\mathbb{Z}_2$ -action on $\mathbb{Z}_2/\mathbb{Z}_2$ is trivial, and the $\mathbb{Z}_2$ -equivariant cohomology of a $\mathbb{Z}_2$ -space with a trivial action is isomorphic to the ordinary cohomology of the space.

LODGE-CRANE CLASH FOR PARTY MASTERY

Senior and Junior Senators Use Presidential Pawns in Bay State Game.

VILLING a bitter fight for the control of the delegates to the annual convention of the Massachusetts Republican Party, the two Senators, Mr. Lodge and Mr. Crane, have been engaged in a campaign of mutual recrimination, each claiming to be the true champion of the party's interests.

Then in 1897, when the two Senators were again in the contest, the present battle was fought. Mr. Lodge, then the junior Senator, was defeated by Mr. Crane, then the senior Senator. Since that time, the two have been engaged in a bitter struggle for party mastery.

Amory, 827 West 19th St., New York writes: "I have always had a prejudice against advertising. I want to make one decided exception. As the cold last winter and it settled in throat and chest, I tried the most persistent catarrh, which medicines until I tried Perna. Before that I considered myself cured."

MR.
GEO. W.
AMORY

E will be sufficient to disabuse his mind. Perna is a great and useful family medicine. It is used in multitudes of homes. It has become a standard remedy for various petty ailments in the home. It is especially useful for climatic diseases. It is an excellent remedy for colds. It is a well-tried remedy for catarrh in all forms.

We have a multitude of testimonials recommending it for colds, for bronchitis, for various affections of the respiratory and alimentary organs. It is well known to all who know Perna by actual experience.

"Cures All Catarrhal Diseases"
Mr. L. W. Kightlinger, Cambridge,
Neb., writes: "I don't have any more trouble in my throat, and have not had a headache for four weeks."
"Peruna is the very medicine for catarrh. There is no medicine like it in the United States, for I have tried a good many before using Peruna."
"I will keep it in my house to guard against catarrh, as it cures all catarrhal diseases."

CLOSED CARS POPULAR.
That the automobile has proven to be a year round car, regardless of season and ice, is conclusively proven by watching the traffic in the streets of many a city. H. O. Smith, maker of the Premier, or as he figures it, the American car "manufacturers' association," says "a week or two ago we watched the rush of vehicles on Broadway. It was at 75 per cent of the vehicle driven. Of this 75 per cent it contained 70 per cent closed cars and 30 per cent open cars."

No matter who you are or what your position in life, your personal appearance is of great importance.

THE CHARM of the most beautiful face is destroyed by a disfigured, unshapely or crooked nose, because the nose, being the most prominent feature, gives expression to the face. If the features are perfect, the face, to be truly beautiful, must have the witchery and fascination of a pure, transparent and delicate complexion.

Lieut. Harold D. Hinckley's Divorce Action in 'Frisco Reveals Separation.

BRIDE NOW BACK IN HUB

"I'll File Cross-Libel and Show Him Up," She Declares When Told of Suit.

FORMERLY MELROSE GIRL

Was Miss Alice Gilman, Widely Known in Society for Her Beauty.

"LIEUTENANT Harold D. Hinckley, my husband, is looking for a divorce. That is what I have heard. He has been in the city and they are more than I can endure."

And so pretty Mrs. Alice Gilman Hinckley, one of Melrose's fairest daughters, in a measure accounts for the mysterious separation from her warrior husband, who was born in Hingham and was a naval leader but a few years ago on the South shore.

To a local Sunday American reporter yesterday, Mrs. Hinckley more emphatically declared that she had left her husband and that she was sure that he had brought suit for divorce against her in the San Francisco courts on the grounds of desertion to entirely true.

Created by Society.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 15.—Mrs. Alice Gilman Hinckley has filed a bill for divorce in the superior court of the city and county of San Francisco, Cal. The bill is based on the grounds of desertion and is the first of the kind filed in that court since the divorce of the late Mrs. John D. Rockefeller.

After a recent visit to the city, Mrs. Hinckley returned to her home in Melrose, where she has been residing since her marriage to Lieut. Hinckley. She is a well-known social figure in the city and has been a member of the Melrose club since its organization.

The divorce bill was filed in the name of Mrs. Alice Gilman Hinckley, nee Gilman, and is based on the grounds of desertion. It is the first of the kind filed in that court since the divorce of the late Mrs. John D. Rockefeller.

MAN WITH MYSTIC KEY

HUNTED BY THOUSANDS

Crowds at Bunker Hill Brave Pelting Rain and Windstorm to Win $50 Reward; George S. Cutting of Medford Lucky Captor.

CATCH GIRL WITH MYSTIC KEY MONDAY AND GET $100

Double Reward Will Be Offered Tomorrow, When One of the Prettiest Girls in Boston Will Carry Key to Park Street Subway.

YESTERDAY'S hunt for the Mystic Key was no less successful than that of Friday, in which Horace Goldin, the Bostonian, eluded four of the largest man-hunting crowds ever seen in any city.

Thousands of persons yesterday afternoon stood about Bunker Hill Monument at 4 p. m. in a pouring rain waiting for the appearance of the man with the key. He came, he saw, but he was not captured.

Dressed as a messenger boy and bearing a telegram addressed to Horace Goldin, for whom he appeared to be in a rather nervous condition, the man with the Mystic Key succeeded in fooling the crowd for a short time.

But not for long. Two or three persons addressed him with a view to capturing him, but he was not captured. He was seen by a man named George S. Cutting, of Medford, who was in the crowd.

Mr. Cutting, who was in the crowd, was the lucky captor of the man with the Mystic Key. He was seen by a man named George S. Cutting, of Medford, who was in the crowd.
